Mayan Mysteries

a photographic adventure

March 20 - May 17, 2009

In the trek of a lifetime, renowned photographer Willis Peterson takes us into Mesoamerica in search of temples and artifacts of the mysterious Mayan culture. Ancient staircases leading up to the heavens, sculpted likenesses of kings long departed, colossal temples shrouded in jungle, all inviting investigation are examined and featured in this extraordinary exhibit. Long known for his photography and descriptive writing of nature, Peterson explores new frontiers in producing this exhilarating, visual adventure.
